JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff ROBERT COLLIER (“Plaintiff”), by and through his attorneys, ELLWANGER LAW LLLP and VALLI KANE AND VAGNINI LLP, bring this action for damages and other legal and equitable relief from Defendants, DALLAS COUNTY (“Dallas”); and DALLAS COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT d/b/a/ PARKLAND HEALTH & HOSPITAL SYSTEM (“Parkland”) (collectively “Defendants”), for violations of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”), as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., the Civil Rights Act of 1866, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 et seq. (“§ 1981”), the Texas Employment Discrimination Act, as amended, Tex. Lab. Code §§ 21.001 et seq. (“TLC”), and any other cause(s) of action that can be inferred from the facts set forth herein.

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action brought by Plaintiff seeking damages from Defendants for acts of discrimination, hostile work environment, and retaliation. Defendants’ acts of discrimination are in violation of Title VII, § 1981, the TLC, and any other cause(s) of action that can be inferred from the facts set forth herein.

2. Defendants jointly and severally own and operate a hospital located at 5201 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas 75235.

3. Defendants employed Plaintiff, who is Black, as an Operating Room Aide I. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was subjected to racially hostile graffiti throughout the workplace and comments by his coworkers, which he complained about. However, Defendants did not take any remedial action regarding Plaintiff's complaints.

4. Additionally, throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, he was denied overtime hours and promotional opportunities in favor less qualified non-Black employees.

5. Lastly, Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff for making complaints of the racially discriminatory and hostile work environment to which he was subjected.

6. Plaintiff alleges, as a result of Defendants' misconduct, that he is entitled to (1) back pay, (2) emotional damages, (3) punitive damages, (4) attorneys' fees and costs, (5) interest, and (6) such other and further relief as this Court finds necessary and proper.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, which confers original jurisdiction upon this Court for actions arising under the laws of the United States, and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1343(3) and 1343(4), which confer original jurisdiction upon this Court in a civil action to recover damages or to secure equitable relief (i) under any Act of Congress providing for the protection of civil rights; (ii) under the Declaratory Judgment Statute, 28 U.S.C. § 2201; (iii) 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., as amended, and (iv) 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 et seq., as amended. This Court also has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367, which confers supplemental jurisdiction upon this Court for all other claims that are so related to claims in the action within such original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.

8. Venue is also proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred in this District.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff is a person who has been aggrieved by Defendants' actions. He is and has been, at all relevant times, a Black male citizen of the United States of America and is a resident of Texas.

10. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was Defendants' employee covered by Title VII, § 1981, and the TLC.

11. Defendant Dallas is a county within Texas, which is located within this judicial district.

12. Upon information and belief, Defendant Dallas employs more than one hundred (100) persons.

13. During all relevant times, Defendant Dallas has been an employer covered by Title VII, § 1981, and the TLC.

14. Defendant Parkland is a hospital owned and operated by Defendant Dallas and is located at 5201 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas 75235 (the "Hospital"), which is located within this judicial district.

15. Upon information and belief, Defendant Parkland employs more than one hundred (100) persons.

16. During all relevant times, Defendant Parkland has been an employer covered by Title VII, § 1981, and the TLC.

17. Defendants transacted, and continue to transact, business in Texas by employing Plaintiff and other persons at the Hospital. Defendants also transact business in Texas by providing medical services within Texas to the citizens of Texas.

18. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff directly or indirectly, jointly or severally, including without limitation, by controlling and directing, among other things, the terms of his employment and compensation, his work schedule, and his supervision.

EXHAUSTION OF FEDERAL ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

19. Plaintiff who has herein alleged claims pursuant to Title VII has timely filed a complaint of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), which constitutes a cross-filing with the Texas Commission on Human Rights.

20. Plaintiff has received his Notice of Right to Sue letter from the EEOC prior to the filing of this Complaint. On or around September 13, 2017, the EEOC mailed Plaintiff his Notice of Right to Sue letter.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

21. Defendants own and operate the Hospital, which employed Plaintiff as an Operating Room Aid I.

22. In or around January 2009, Plaintiff began his employment with Defendants.

23. Plaintiff remained in the same position throughout his employment.

24. Throughout the Hospital there were depictions of swastikas, including, but not limited to, elevators, hallways, and bathrooms. Furthermore, Plaintiff was subjected to racially hostile comments by his coworkers such as, “boy.”

25. In or around August 2015, Plaintiff complained about the racially hostile graffiti to Mr. Richard Stetzel (“Stetzel”), a White supervisor, as well as another Hispanic supervisor. Despite these complaints, Defendants did not take any remedial action and the offensive graffiti remained.

26. In addition to the racially hostile graffiti and comments, Defendants implemented pay and promotional practices that favored non-Black employees.

27. For example, available overtime hours are frequently offered to non-Black similarly situated employees before Plaintiff. Accordingly, non-Black similarly situated employees earn more pay than Plaintiff because they are permitted to work more overtime hours.

28. As another example, throughout Plaintiff’s tenure with Defendants he was denied numerous promotions in favor of less qualified and tenured non-Black similarly situated employees. Since 2013, Plaintiff was denied approximately eight (8) promotional opportunities for which he was qualified.

29. In early 2015, Plaintiff applied for the Operating Room Aide III position. However, the position was given to a similarly situated White employee, who was less experienced and tenured than Plaintiff.

30. Lastly, Plaintiff was subjected to retaliation for his complaints to Defendants.

31. For example, in or around December 2015, Plaintiff was in the process of gathering and organizing some materials in a hallway in which a White nurse was working, when she stated: “do not leave until I’m finished with you boy.”

32. Plaintiff immediately reported this incident to Stetzel. Directly following Plaintiff’s complaint, he was transferred to a different work location on the opposite side of the Hospital.

33. Moreover, on multiple occasions, Plaintiff was reprimanded, written up, or forced to endure some other sort of retaliatory punishment after he complained about Defendants' racially hostile and discriminatory practices.

34. For example, Plaintiff was written up multiple times for not being attentive to his radio, which was a selectively-enforced policy. Defendants enforced this policy so strictly against Plaintiff such that if he did not respond for approximately ten (10) seconds he would receive a write up.

35. Ultimately, following repeated instances of complaints about discriminatory treatment as well as hostile work environment, in or around July 2016, Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment.
